

Announcing the North Texas Writing Centers Association
2015 Outstanding Tutor Award

The Ntwca is pleased to accept nominations for The Ntwca Outstanding Tutor Award, which is designed to recognize professional staff (full or part-time consultants) as well as peer tutors (graduate or undergraduate) who not only demonstrate excellent tutoring skills but also make significant contributions to their writing center. The winner will be recognized and the award presented at the Ntwca spring conference on April 17 at The University of Texas at Dallas.

Any nominated professional consultant, graduate, or undergraduate peer tutor at a writing center in the Ntwca region is eligible to receive an award. Nominees should be current members of the Ntwca, either individually or through their institutions.

Writing center directors may nominate a professional consultant or undergraduate or graduate peer tutor who is an employee in his/her writing center. Nominations should include the name, institution, address, telephone, and email address of the consultant / tutor as well as a letter explaining why the individual should be considered for the award, including information regarding tutoring abilities and contributions to the center. Please submit nominations to Jennifer Phillips (jphillipsdenny@twu.edu), President of the Ntwca, by March 13, 2015. Electronic submissions only, please.
