What to expect? We will discuss the orientation and plan of action, get to know other Peer Advisors, and eat a free lunch together.

Note: Training is mandatory for both new and returning volunteers

Why it's great to be an International Peer Advisor

- Enjoy a lovely lunch at the training session and orientations
- Receive a snazzy t-shirt
- Enhance the experiences of international students new to UTA
- Add this volunteer experience to your resume

For more information, visit our website at www.uta.edu/oie. You will be contacted regarding selection by the end of the day of May 11th via email. All majors, degree status, nationalities (including Americans) are encouraged to apply. Interviews may be part of the selection process. Selection of peer advisors is based on GPA, current involvement at UTA, written answers to application questions, availability at orientations, among other things.
